Course Structure

Week	Topic	Remark
1	Introduction + HTML/JS Recap + Web Services + Git/GitHub
2	CSS Part I: Vanilla CSS
3	CSS Part II: Bootstrap	Project Briefing
4	Vue I: Building reactive, interactive pages DOM Manipulation	Quiz 1
5	Vue II: Event Handling, Axios API calls, JSON data handling
6	Vue III: Modularization with components	Quiz 2
7	Trial Lab Test	Lab Test (25%) 2 Oct (Friday) 345pm-545pm
8	Recess week
9	Project Progress Evaluation (5%)	ad-hoc / online
10	Unit, Integration, E2E Testing
11	Vue IV: Routing and State Management	Quiz 3
12	Project Work Week (Consultation)	Quiz 4 Project Submission: Friday 9am
14	Final Project Presentation (25%)	In-class presentations No class on Wk13
>= 15	Final Exam (30% 2hr)

Assessments

Continuous assessment

- Lab Test 1 (25%)
 - Duration: 2 hours
 - Student to bring own laptop computer for live coding
 - No monitor, no extra computing devices except one laptop
 - No Internet
 - open book, hard copies & offline materials allowed
 - use of ChatGPT / Co-Pilot / GAI is not allowed
- Project (30%)
 - Progress evaluation in Week 9 (5%)
 - Final presentation in Week 13 (25%)
- Class Participation (15%)
 - Quizzes
 - Class/Slack activeness
 - Exercises

Exam

Final exam – Written Test (30%)

- Duration: 2 hours
- Student to bring own laptop computer
 - No monitor, no extra computing devices except one laptop
- No Internet
- Closed book
- Using Lockdown browser

Class Format and Participation

Exercises

In-class exercises will be plenty, we will help debugging and providing hints.

Extra exercises will be provided for each topic for capable students.

Sample solutions will be provided by Fridays.

Attendance

1 mark (of total grade) will be taken off for each absence without valid reason

CP points will be deducted for lateness

How to get 15% Class Participation Marks?

- 4 Quizzes: must attempt once within the given duration (in eLearn Merged section). Unlimited #attempts. Max pts taken. Strictly no deadline extension!!!
- Pop Quizzes: Three CP points for top 5
- Coding Tests: CP points
- One CP point for showing your completed in-class or extra exercises by the subsequent class, e.g., show your wk1 exercises by wk2 Monday, to TA, Instructor, or Faculty
- One CP point for asking/answering good questions.
- Two CP points for demonstrating your exercise solution in the class.

Late Submission Policy

1 hour late: 10%

> 1 hour late: 100%

Project (30%)

- Group project (6 pax)
- Either Section faculty form your group or Form your own group. Please check with your teacher.
- Propose your own project (detailed requirements will be announced in Week 3).
- Your group is to deliver a 5-minute proposal pitch in Week 9. Instructor will provide feedback.
- All project deliverables are due Week12 Friday 9am (no further changes allowed for any reason).
- Your group will present your project in Week 13.
- Peer evaluation: 5% of your project grade (out of 30%) will be based on the peer evaluation with the faculty's professional judgement.

Team Conflict Management

Teamwork is implicit part of the project contribution

- Stage 1 — Team discussion

- Students should first make a reasonable attempt to resolve disagreements within the team, such as unequal workload or lack of contribution, missing internal deadlines, poor communication or repeated absence from meetings, disagreement about technical decisions or project scope

- Stage 2 — Written warning within team

- Give a written warning after internal discussions are not successful.
- Keep evidence: signed meeting notes, task allocation records, git commits, written warnings

- Stage 3 — Instructor mediation

- If the team cannot resolve the problem after discussing it internally, they should contact the instructors. Conflict-reporting deadline: minimum two weeks before the project submission deadline.
- Teams should not wait until immediately before or after project submission to report long-standing team problems. Instructors will not intervene if the issues are reported after the conflict-reporting deadline. Mark adjustment, in this case (issues known after the deadline), will be based on peer evaluation and the instructors' professional judgement.

- Stage 4 — Individual contribution review

- By default, all the team members get the same grade. But when there is strong evidence of substantially different contribution, individual marks may be adjusted.

Make-Up Policy

Lab Test

- If you miss the lab test with an MC or official reason that we deem valid, we may either incorporate your lab test grade into final exam grade (i.e., your final exam grade becomes 55% instead of 30%) or schedule the make-up lab test, subject to the teaching team's decision
- You will get zero for the lab test, if you miss both the lab test and the final exam for any reason.

Final Exam

We will follow university policy

No makeup by default

Class Make Up

University-scheduled Makeup Classes

The Singapore public holidays schedule for the upcoming term is as shown below. In general, RO will reschedule all classes affected by the public holidays to designated Saturdays for makeup. The time and venue of university-scheduled makeup classes shall remain unchanged (per regular classes) unless informed otherwise by RO. More details about the makeup class arrangement will be released nearer to the start of term.

AY2026-27 Term 1

Public Holiday		Classes Affected	Rescheduled To
Deepavali*	Monday, 9 November 2026	All Classes	Saturday, 31 October 2026

 Deepavali falls on Sunday, 8 Nov 2026. The following Monday, 9 Nov 2026, will be a public holiday instead.*

Affected Week 13 Monday Classes => re-schedule Project Presentations to Week 14 Monday (16 Nov) same time/venue

Incomplete (“I”) Grade

A student must fulfill the following criteria for an “I” grade.

- The student is unable to fulfill the course requirement either because of an illness or extenuating circumstances beyond his/her control.
- Student must achieve at least 75% attendance in the course.
- You are not eligible for ‘I’ grade if you miss the Lab Test even with valid reasons!
- Your academic performance must be satisfactory (accumulated score for all attempted components must be at least be 45% of total possible score).

Academic Integrity

- All acts of academic dishonesty (including, but not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, facilitation of acts of academic dishonesty by others, unauthorized possession of exam questions, or tampering with the academic work of other students) are serious offences.
- All work (whether oral or written) submitted for purposes of assessment must be the student's own work. Penalties for violation of the policy range from zero marks for the component assessment to expulsion, depending on the nature of the offence.
- When in doubt, students should consult the instructors of the course.

Plagiarism Management

- If you plagiarize, e.g. copy other people's work for your project or cheat in any test (offline, online), this is the process we follow:

Detection

- E-learn team or Faculty
- Inform Dean's office (Jeandie LIM)

Investigation

- E-learn team or Faculty
- Dean's office
- Office of Dean of Students

Copyright of Course Materials

Course materials obtained during your course of study at SMU are meant for personal use only, namely, for the purposes of studying and research. You are strictly not permitted to make copies of or print additional copies or distribute such copies of the course materials or any parts thereof, for commercial gain or exchange. For example, offering such materials on the Internet through CourseHero, Carousell and the like, is strictly prohibited.

The selling of these materials and/or any copies thereof are strictly prohibited under Singapore copyright laws. Printed materials and electronic materials are both protected by copyright laws. All students are subject to Singapore copyright laws and must strictly adhere to SMU's procedures and requirements relating to copyright.

Please also note that for some materials, the publishers may specifically state that each copy is for the personal use of one individual only and no further reprographic reproduction is allowed, including for personal use. These restrictions are spelt out clearly on these specific sets of resources and students are required to adhere to these rules.

Students who infringe any of the aforesaid rules, laws and requirements shall be liable to disciplinary action by SMU. In addition, such students may also leave themselves open to suits by copyright owners who are entitled to take legal action against persons who infringe their copyright.

We strongly urge all students to respect the copyright laws and abide by SMU's procedures and requirements relating to copyright.
